Tartars Take 14 to 7 Game From Banning

Intercepting a fourth quarter Banning pass, Richard Rosset, reserve Torrance linesman, ran the ball 53 yards to a touchdown and the third Tartar football victory since 1938 last Friday at Wilmington. Dave Jacobs booted the extra point for Rosset's score and a previous touchdown in the third quarter by Wally Post to chalk up the 14 to 7 win.

Post received a pass from Bobby Golden and scampered 15 yards to pay dirt right in front of his wife-cheering dad. Banning's Chariton had scored a few minutes before on a series of three 'fumbles' plays, crossing the Tartar goal from the one-yard marker on the last one.

Golden was outstanding for Torrance with his slashing runs and brilliant passing. He hurled one for 47 yards that was just barely stopped from a touchdown by an alert Banning back. His bright day did not go unmarred, however, because he was nipped several times for losses as he attempted to find a man for his heels.

Matched against Banning's pile-driving Legaspi, Golden looked better than he has all season and he should be powerful against Narbonne tomorrow. The right side of the line gave way under the punning of Banning's backs and forward wall, permitting the Pilots to make most of their advances thru that wing.

Big Dick Thompson, Justice and Jacobs nipped the Pilot offensive consistently. Banning suffered from penalties, one of which put them back on their two-yard marker when their coach, Mark Sampson, 'fopped off' at the referee. Lineups:

Basketball League Draws Little Interest

Unless there is more interest shown in plans of the Torrance City Recreation Commission to institute a basketball league the project will be dropped, Chairman Robert Lowellen, Sr., said today. He reported that at date only the Episcopal church and Torrance Sons of the American Legion had indicated they would enter teams.

'Five men have called me asking to get places on any teams entered in a basketball league but there doesn't seem to be any interest on the part of local organizations or industries to organize squads for the games,' he said.

If there are not enough entries by Dec. 1 the project will be dropped, Lowellen said. He can be reached by those interested at 1807 Madrid ave., or phone 852-J.

Lincoln Namesake Held For Drunk Driving

Tartar History Has Nine Iron Men Who Have Scored on Gauchos

Because Narbonne's Gauchos have held the upper hand so long and so consistently over the Torrance Tartars, the latter is entitled to take whatever comfort and honor there is in recalling the exploits of the 'nine iron men' who have been the only Tartars ever to score on the Gauchos.

That's right—only nine Torrance players have crossed Narbonne goal lines since the two schools first tangled in a football game 'way back in 1928'.

During the past 15 years, Lomita teams have rolled up a grand total of 380 points to 62 gained by Torrance eleven. Faced with that kind of opposition, perhaps Torrance supporters are justified in recalling those statistics of the past who cleared Narbonne goals.

Just in case you Tartar fans have forgotten the Gaucho Goalkeepers or if you never did know them - diligent research among Robert Lewellen's scrapbooks (he used to be The Torrance Herald's sports editor - and a darn good one, too) and among The Herald's files have produced this data: In 1928-Al Pennington, quarterback, was the first Tartar to score on the Gauchos after the Narbonne-Torrance rivalry began two years before. He crossed the stripe in the last quarter of an end-around play. Sig Nylander was the Torrance coach.

1928 - Al Pennington, quarterback, was the first Tartar to score on the Gauchos after the Narbonne-Torrance rivalry began two years before. He crossed the stripe in the last quarter of an end-around play. Sig Nylander was the Torrance coach.

1934 - Another two-year barren period and Harold Watson, left half, and Jack Javens, right half, did it. Javens scored on line plays. Watson in the second and Javens in the third quarter. Ted Adzovich, fullback, became the first Tartar ever to convert on the Gauchos. And Torrance won its first (and only earned) Marine League grid title that year under direction of Coach Bernie Donahue.

1935 - Jack Javens proved himself an All-Time Torrance grid great when he scored once more on the Narbonneites. He scored thru the line in the first quarter. Johnny McFadden, left end, joined the G. G.'s roster when he snagged a long pass from Jim Ammon in the fourth and crossed standing up. Donahue was still coach.

1936 - Jack Kent, end, tallied on an end-around play. Donahue still mentoring the Tartars.

1938 - Marvin Goettisch, left half, Henry Pupkoff, right half, and Akkie Shimatsu, fullback, were the last to score on Narbonne. Goettisch went around right end in the first. Pupkoff line-plunged to glory in the third and Shimatsu skipped around end in the fourth period for the last tally accounted by Torrance against Narbonne. Present coach, Bob Barr, was Tartar head-man.

New Type Pistons In Oldsmobiles

The adoption of Armasteel pistons in all series of Oldsmobile for 1942, both sixes and eights, was announced in Lansing recently by the Oldsmobile division of General Motors, according to Mullin's Service, local Oldsmobile dealers. Adoption of the new type pistons signals the release by Oldsmobile of the quantities of aluminum to national defense uses. It also dramatically illustrates how the development of an 'alternate' material can result in improved quality and long life.

Armasteel pistons have played an important part in the sensational records achieved by General Motors diesel-driven locomotives. Designing and building a piston for these engines that offered extremely low wearing qualities, at the same time maintaining far greater tensile strength, was an achievement of the General Motors Research staff. Records show that as many as a million miles of continuous service was traveled by the General Motors diesel engines without need for Armasteel piston maintenance.

Backed by General Motors Research and hundreds of thousands of miles at the proving grounds, Oldsmobile engineers adopted this new type piston for the 1942 cars. Because of the toughness and durability of Armasteel, it is possible to materially reduce the weight of the new Oldsmobile piston, thereby combining some of the most desirable characteristics of aluminum with the lasting qualities of steel.

Following the Revolutionary war, John Paul Jones, whose naval exploits made him the first great American naval hero, served for awhile as a rear admiral in the Russian navy.

Torrance-Narbonne Grid Record Shows Gaucho Superiority

Tomorrow the Torrance-Narbonne gridiron rivalry starts its 16th year. The record has been all-Narbonne, the Gauchos having won 11 games, tied one, and lost two to the Tartars.

The Lomitanos have rolled up 350 points while Torrance players were struggling to get but 62. Here is the year-by-year story of the inter-community grid spectacles:
